

Appendix B

Lists of 160 journals where TM research has been published, 211 universities where the research was conducted, and 24 universities where doctoral dissertation on TM were carried out.

I. 160 journals and edited books where research on the Transcendental Meditation program has been published.

“Over the past 10 years the editors and reviewers of the International Journal of Neuroscience have accepted several papers on Transcendental Meditation because they have met the rigorous standards of scientific publication. IJN is honored to have two Nobel laureates on its editorial board, and has a distinguished group of scientists from leading universities on every continent who judge the scientific value of the papers submitted for consideration.”

—Dr. Sidney Weinstein, Editor-in-Chief, International Journal of Neuroscience
